www.polarbearsinternational.org

Surviving in today's world is tough for growers and polar bears alike. Ecke's newest white poinsettia, Polar Bear, can help both. For every Polar Bear cutting purchased, Ecke will make a donation to Polar Bears International. You'll get a wonderful new white variety to produce and sell, plus the satisfaction of knowing you've helped an endangered species. One hundred percent of donations goes directly to research and education projects in support of polar bears. Order your cuttings today!
